PATHEPIC STORY OF THE DEAD CZAR.—A pathetic story comes from Russia about the last present received by the Dowager Empress from the late Czar. Last summer the Czar and the Empress visited a great shop in St. Petersburg. The Empress admired a beautiful bracelet, and told the Czar she wished it. On their return he became ill, and the Empress forgot the bracelet. On her birthday, the 14th of November, the Czar had been wont to place a bouquet in the morning room, as too full of painful memories, but on the morning of her son's wedding day Nicholas requested her to go to her room as a favor to him. The first thing she saw was a bouquet in the usual place, and inside the flowers was a case, fastened and sealed by the Czar's own hands. It contained the bracelet. He had ordered it the same day the Empress saw it, and on his death-bed had given instructions for the birthday gift, bidding his son be near to comfort her when she received it.

A REVOLVER IN HER HANDBAG.—Mrs. Frank Singleton, of Dover, N. J., tracked her husband to Morristown, N. J., on Saturday, and located him in the West End Hotel with a young married woman named Bullock, also of Dover. Singleton is superintendent of the Singleton Silk Manufacturing Company and wealthy. Mrs. Singleton confronted the couple in the hotel and the wife upbraided the husband for his misconduct and threatened to shoot his companion. Mrs. Bullock wisely fled to concealment. In Mrs. Singleton's handbag was a revolver fully loaded. She was finally persuaded to withdraw from the hotel, and shortly after she had gone Singleton and Mrs. Bullock walked arm in arm to the railroad station and there took a train for parts unknown. Mrs. Singleton has consulted a lawyer and it is probable that proceedings for a divorce will be instituted. Singleton is the father of ten children, some of whom are grown.

Right Arm Paralyzed!
Saved from St. Vitus Dance.

"Our daughter, Blanche, had now fifteen years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. We feared St. Vitus dance, and tried the best physicians, with no benefit. She has taken three bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine and has gained 35 pounds. Her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid."

We have so named them because of their purity and general excellence. They beat the record for quality at the price, and just fit the pocket nicely.

They are an Ideal Lunch or Tea Table Biscuit, combining a confection with a fine biscuit. They are attractive in appearance, delicate and "tasting" in flavor, and are made by Alexandria mechanics and machinery, in an Alexandria building, taxed insured and repaired in Alexandria, with Alexandria capital; delivered in an Alexandria-made wagon, by an Alexandria man, who drives Alexandria-bought horses, fed and shod horses, and advertised in Alexandria newspapers. If by any chance our representatives overlook you, a postal will insure your seeing these goods and prompt service.
